Visit Tirana Newsletter No.37

Art, Culture, Music, Entertainment for those who love our city, Tirana

WHAT TO DO IN MARCH IN TIRANA

There are plenty things to do in March in Tirana. The sunny days are ahead. Albanians celebrate 4 special days on March: 7 March -Teacher’s Day, 8 March-Mother’s Day, 14 March “Summer Day” and 22 March “Nowruz Day”. Read more:

8 March- International Women's Day
Summer Day, a unique festive day of Albania

14 March is a unique festive day in Albania. Locals call it Summer Day, even though it is celebrated in the first days of spring. Summer day in Albania is a day celebrated centuries before the birth of Christianity. Read more:

Rakip Shabani—the painter who perpetuates Albanian history

Teacher’s Day in Albania, March 7th

7th of March, is known as the Teacher’s Day in Albania, and is celebrated in all schools and universities. On March 1887 Albanians opened the first desegregated, secular school in what was then the Ottoman Empire. Read more:

The story of Radio Tirana—the first radio station
Gallery43 is the personal gallery of the painter Rakip Shabani. It exhibits about 100 works by the author from 1969 to 2020. Part of his works is old Tirana, especially main buildings and traditional costumes. Read more

The beginnings of Radio Tirana dates back to 28 November 1938. The first Albanian radio station was launched by King Zog I and Queen Geraldine in a ceremony at Municipality of Tirana hall of that time. The first building was at Kont Urani Street (Tirana). See more

Other Events in March 2020
#TiranaWinter2020 photo contest

We closed the #TiranaWinter2020 social media photo contest and now is open #TiranaSpring2020 photo contest. Share your photos of spring in Tirana on Instagram, using the hashtag #TiranaSpring2020. The contest is open from 1 March-31 May 2020.

Our partners

Tourism can't be done alone. But together we can turn Tirana into the touristic center of the region. For collaboration, sponsorship or advertising, please write at contact@visit-tirana.com.